Upcoming Events at SVARW

Celebrate Christmas Luncheon with SVARW

Our Christmas Luncheon is always a special event. The deadline to purchase tickets and select your entrée is Friday, Dec. 2. But don't worry; it's simple to do both by visiting SVARW.com. The site is encrypted for security.

This year Santa Clara County Supervisor, Mike Wasserman will administer the oath of office to our incoming SVARW Executive Officers for 2017. Mike will also provide an update on issues affecting Santa Clara County.

After a delicious lunch, we will hear from Greg Von Gehr and Major Gaylene Yardley representing our selected charity for this year, the Salvation Army. As is our practice, guests will have an opportunity to make a donation to the Salvation Army.

For 2017, our incoming executive board members who will be sworn in at the luncheon are:

President: Jan Soule
First Vice President: Rosa Brown
Second Vice President: Debra Janssen-Martinez
Recording Secretary: Sherrill Martinez
Corresponding Secretary: Susan Calderon
Treasurer: Lisa Seago

Bring a friend in January

For several years, SVARW has encouraged members to bring a FIRST TIME guest for FREE to the first meeting of the new year. This tradition continues in 2017 for the January meeting. This is a great way to introduce new people to SVARW.

President's message

Mayor does not 'have our backs'

The following email was sent to Mayor Sam Liccardo on Friday, Nov. 18. That evening around 6 p.m. I received a phone call from a member of the Mayor's staff. The essence of the conversation was that we misunderstood what the mayor was communicating and that in the future the communication staff needs to be more aware of the effects on Trump supporters. If you are familiar with the Peanuts cartoon, it was like the "wa wa wa" you hear when adults are speaking.

Mayor Liccardo does not have our back!

Dear Mayor Liccardo:
We respected your willingness to speak to the Silicon Valley Association of Republican Women on June 29th after Republicans were beaten at the Trump Rally in San Jose on June 3rd.
At that meeting you again repeated that the reason for violence was Trump's rhetoric. Of course since then it has been proved by Project Veritas <http://www.svarw.com/?p=621> that members of the Democratic Party were instigators. In the video, DNC operatives brag about hiring people including mentally ill to create disturbances. It is well-documented that post-election riots were led by George Soros' funded activists. It would be appropriate to receive an apology from you for your statements at our meeting.

I do hope that the "Protect our Community Unity Gathering at San Jose City Hall" co-sponsored by every local leftist organization and set for this coming Sunday, Nov 20th is a peaceful event. President Obama in a statement from Germany yesterday certainly encouraged "peaceful" demonstrations. Should the event turn violent, I trust that we will not see you on national TV blaming Trump but have the boldness to call out the Democrat operatives who want to see violence.

The purpose of this email is to address the FEAR and INTIMADATION faced by Republican Women in your city. As women who voted for Donald Trump we are an unprotected minority. Since the San Jose Police Department under Chief Garcia failed to protect us at the Trump Rally; no one in our organization feels safe on the streets of San Jose wearing their Make America Great hats or their Trump T-shirts.

The news is filled with post-election incidents of people being beaten just because they supported Donald Trump. We have seen a white man pulled from his car in Chicago after a minor fender bender and beaten by three African Americans yelling at him for supporting Trump. Closer to home we have all seen the news report https://www.rt.com/usa/367175-trump-student-attacked-racist/ of a Woodside High School girl who was beaten for posting her excitement over the election of Donald Trump. How would you feel walking in our shoes?

Your recent "We've Got Your Back" rhetoric ([http://www.svarw.
com/?p=644](http://www.svarw.com/?p=644)) has further emboldened Democrats to believe that they have nothing to fear in attacking Trump supporters. When you imply that something like a "Muslim Registry" might be applied to residents is fear mongering. Registries were used after 911 and until 2011 to track visitors to the US coming from countries known to harbor radical Islamic terrorists, a phrase your party still finds difficult to say. We don't need San Jose to be the next San Bernardino.

Your message consistently reinforced the rhetoric of the left branding every Trump supporter as a racist. Do you really believe that any member of the Silicon Valley Association of American Women is a racist? Our club and the Republican Central Committee supported many candidates of many races, varied backgrounds, and both sexes, because we share their principals. We

In case you missed it: Jim Brulte

Ways to advance conservatism

By Joyce Hall
Newsletter editor

Republican women have tremendous power to influence others and affect elections. At the Nov. 16 SVARW brunch meeting, guest speaker Jim Brulte, chairman of the state GOP, gave concrete examples of how members can advance Republican principles. Before hearing from Brulte, however, the overflow crowd paused to raise a champagne toast to President-elect Donald Trump.

“Don’t underestimate your power to influence others,” Brulte said. “It was a Republican woman who in 1966 invited a 10-year-old boy to get involved in a campaign for a man named Ronald Reagan, who was running for governor.” The 10-year-old Brulte helped paint the campaign office and paste bumper stickers on cars. Since that first foray into politics, Brulte has worked for three American presidents, served as the minority leader in California’s State Assembly and Senate and now serves as chairman for the state party.

When asked for specific advice, Brulte said, “You can start by telling all of your friends that it was actually a Republican woman (Kellyanne Conway) who successfully managed the (Trump) campaign.”

He also urged members to renew their memberships in SVARW for 2017 or to join for the first time and invite others to the meetings. “Join and invite someone to be part of this revolution.”

Brulte delineated the qualities that make for a good candidate. In California, any Republican seeking elected office must be “right on the issues, able to raise a lot of money and inspire a lot of people to volunteer,” he explained. A candidate who lacks just one of those characteristics will not be a good candidate in Democrat-dominated California.

supported you for those reasons, even though we do not agree with your party’s platform or tone.

With Republicans being targeted in liberal communities, our members have been asking whether SVARW should provide some type of security at our breakfast meetings even suggesting that we increase the cost of attendance to pay for security. This past Wednesday (Nov. 16), an incident took place in the parking lot at Three Flames Restaurant in Willow Glen that has sent fear into the members of our organization. Somewhere between 8:30 and 11 a.m., a member’s car was vandalized during our meeting featuring California Republican Party Chairman, Jim Brulte. A large patch was keyed in circles and a back tail light smashed (a police report was filed). We had plenty of signage in the area directing people to our meetings. It was clear that there were Republican Women there. While there is no way to prove who did this act of vandalism, there is a lot to point to it as a political statement.

Immediately after the incident at Three Flames, I contacted your office on Wednesday around 12:30 p.m. to seek some assurance that we, as a minority, would be protected. I was transferred over to a staff member and left a voice mail asking for a return call. I have yet to hear from anyone in your office. If a “Dreamer” had called to report a suspected incident by a Trump supporter...would your lack of response be the same?

We are asking that you address the fear felt by Republican Women who supported Trump. Holding a press conference in which you and Police Chief Garcia let it be known that the City of San Jose will not tolerate hate crimes against Republicans would be a start.

As Republicans we do not go out into the streets and riot but we do go to the ballot box. You are Mayor of San Jose because Republicans were persuaded to vote for you. I think you need to stop throwing us under the bus.

Sincerely

Jan Soule, President, SVARW

How to renew SVARW membership for 2017

Membership in SVARW runs for the calendar year and 2016 memberships expire Dec. 31. Men are invited to join SVARW as Associate members. We are encouraging young conservatives to join SVARW at a special low-cost membership level. In addition to our regular basic membership, premium memberships are available for 2017 to support the organization.

Also available for 2017 is a SPONSOR level which will provide a business or organization with visibility to the 500-plus conservatives on our email list, website visitors and in our newsletter.

You can renew membership online at SVARW.com or by sending your check with the form at right to SVARW, P.O. Box 3194, Saratoga, CA 95070. Renewals also will be accepted at the next regular meeting on Oct. 19.

Have you considered?

Do we ever ask ourselves, "What is society?" Consider the following answer:

Society includes business, charity and religion. People participate in society voluntarily and they choose how to participate. By contrast, government mandates participation and removes choice.
